

What is the Ocean City Fine Arts League

The Ocean City Fine Art League is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization formed in 2002. The League is a co-op of artists and volunteers who maintain the "Art on Asbury" gallery.

The gallery offers works in watercolor, oil, acrylic, mixed media, photography, pottery, textiles and sculptures. Original art, giclees and prints are for sale.

The mission of the League is to educate the community about local artists and to encourage appreciation of the arts in general through exhibits and events. It provides a facility to nurture artists in their development and to showcase their talents. It promotes public participation through exhibition, sale and education through lessons, demonstrations and special events.
